STATE TICKET.

For Governor—

JEREMIAH M. RUSE, of Vernon.

For Lieutenant Governor—

SAM S. FIELDS, of Ashland.

For Secretary of State—

BENJAMIN F. KIMBLE, of Kenosha.

For State Treasurer—

EDWARD C. McFETTER, of Dodge.

For Attorney General—

LEONARD R. FRISBY, of Washington.

For State Superintendent of Public Instruction—

ROBERT G. ALLEN, of Winnebago.

For Railroad Commissioner—

NILS P. HAUGEN, of Pierce.

For Commissioner of Insurance—

PHILIP L. SPOONER, of Dane.

The signal of democratic distress—

Cleveland.

The nomination of Cleveland was like a tempest in a tea-pot.

The democratic party is usually full but Hendricks' confidence is running over.

Widow VanCott, the well known evangelist, claims to be the spiritual mother of 40,000 souls.

The democratic party still stagers under Cleveland. He will be the straw that will break its back.

The great and noble army of "riff-raff"

its number is six millions, and its shilloboth is rotting.

If Maine doesn't give a good republican majority it will be because the people there have been talked to death.

The black elephants of the democratic party is its record. It is one of the elephants that can't be painted white.

You might as well try to find sweet melody in the braying of an ass, as to find consistency in the political conduct of Curtis and Schurz.

It is not likely that Chairman Barham will call for any males in this campaign.

He has all the kickers he wants in Schurz,

Curtis, and their followers.

More young men and more women are taking an interest in this campaign than ever before. The former will help by their votes, and the latter by their grace and influence.

If the democrats could swap Cleveland for Thurnau and Curtis and Co. for Tammam, the party would kick up its heels and gambol over the political field like a beautiful gazelle.

One of the golden times in the republican campaign is the Americanism of its principles. Another is the record of the party, which has no parallel for splendor and success in political history.

Hendricks really wishes that Cleveland would get off the ticket. And again

he most earnestly wishes that he himself was not on. His sayings and his letters betray his feelings on this point.

Mr. Schurz will make ten speeches in this campaign. He will make some thirty all told, which at $250 a speech will give him $7,500. This will be more profit-ter from Duncan Kenner, have been adressed to the planters to persuade them that their interests are safe in democratic hands. From this point in the campaign, it would seem that the sugar growers down south will vote as they please this year, and their sympathy appears to be for the republican ticket.

The prohibitionists of this state have put in the following ticket: Governor—

S. D. Hastings, of Dane county. Lieutenant Governor—A. A. Kelly of St. Croix. Secretary of State—E. G.

Durant, of Racine. State Treasurer—C.

M. Blackmar, of Walworth. Attorney

General—F. K. Angel, of Barron. Superintendent of public instruction—Robert Graham, of Winnebago. Railroad

Commissioner—Henry Sanford, of Manitowoc. Insurance Commissioner—Nehson Ladue, of Lafayette. They will probably poll 10,000 or 12,000 votes.

This is a significant straw: A young lady of Janesville went into a clothing store in the city the other day to buy a campaign badge for the young man who pays her attention. The proprietor asked,

"What kind do you want?" "O," she answered, "I want a Blaine badge." "Well," he said, "I haven't a Blaine badge in the store. I bought six dozen a short time ago, and have sold them all. But the Cleveland badges don't seem to take well. I bought a dozen of them at the same time I bought

Blaine's, and have sold two, given away

three, and have seven on my hands."

The Gazette hopes most sincerely, that

A GREAT WRESTLING MATCH.

Notable Victories at Detroit—A Meeting of Giants. Detroit, Mich., Sept. 6.—About 1,500 people witnessed the double wrestling tournament at Recreation park Friday afternoon.

Col. J. H. McLaughlin, of Detroit, and Hon.

George W. Flagg, of Vermont—honorable because chosen a member of the Vermont legislature at the recent election—contested for the mixed wrestling championship of the west. Flagg and McLaughlin secured a very hard fought and exciting match, the decision being made by a referee, who declared Flagg the victor. The match was held by the former, and $500 a side.

The first bout was between Dufur and Benjamin. Benjamin was thrown by a half-hitch, time, 9 minutes. Flagg and McLaughlin wrestled catch-as-catch-can. Flagg weighed

241 pounds and McLaughlin about twenty

The estimate of the wheat crop of the country, by the department of agriculture is 505,000,000 bushels. The McCormick machine company estimates about 504,000,000 bushels; and C. A. King & Co., of Toledo, 507,000,000 bushels. But other estimates are much larger, one based on late state reports, makes the yield 580,000,000 bushels of winter and 150,000,000 bushels of spring wheat, in the aggregate about 730,000,000 bushels more than the largest previous yield.

SCHOOL MATTERS.

School commences on Monday.

—Marshall Hogan captured two drunks last night.

—Regular meeting of the common council on Monday evening.

—The ordinance of baptism will be administered at Court Street church to-morrow morning.

—Special meeting of Oriental Lodge Knights of Pythias this evening. A full attendance is requested.

—Mr. Volney Atwood was last evening elected president of Oak Hill cemetery association, vice J. B. Carle, deceased.

—The stock holders of the Rock county agricultural society are holding a regular quarterly meeting at the court house this afternoon, attending to routine business of the society and arranging details for the county fair.

—The re-union of Green county veterans at Albany, yesterday, was well attended. Governor Rusk was present, and a number of Janesville people. S. S. Rockwood, of this city, delivered the address. The reunion was a success.

—The lawn social at the home of Mr. J. C. Edlin in the first ward, was largely attended last evening and everybody had a good time. The spacious grounds were nicely illuminated and the warm moonlight night made out door amusement very enjoyable. Refreshments were served on the lawn by the young ladies of the Congregational church.

—The rectory of Trinity church parish was the scene of a pleasant gathering last evening, and the new rector and his family were cordially welcomed to their new home. Trinity church is to be congratulated on having secured the services of the Rev. Dr. Conover. The Gazette joins with the many friends of the parish in wishing the society continued prosperity. Dr. Conover will occupy the pulpit for the first time next Sabbath morning.

—The little village of Orford, in Rock county, now has a new and modern school, and is steadily receiving new recruits. This is cheering news from that quarter considering the fact that Mr. Ellsworth, the prohibitionist, and others had made such wild statements regarding the republicans of Orford. The election returns in November will show that the republicans still hold their own in this quarter of the county.

—The picnic at Pope's Springs yesterday afternoon and evening, under the management of Captain Alex. Buchholz and Mr. E. J. Kent, was a grand success, and was attended by a large number of people. The Arion band was present, and furnished excellent music for the dancing, afternoon and evening. The party returned to the city shortly after midnight. The little steamer Enterprise was kept busy during the afternoon and evening carrying people to and from the pleasure grounds, and all appeared to be happy.

—On Thursday evening the large barn belonging to Mr. O. Onsgard, residing on Section 21, town of Plymouth, was destroyed by fire, including a loss of $1,200. Partly insured in the Hecks, in the agency of Simon Straus, of Orford. The fire occurred about six o'clock in the evening, while Mr. Onsgard and help were in a field some distance away, and the first intimation they had of the fire was when they looked up and discovered the barn wrapped in a sheet of flames. The barn was full of new hay, one horse, farm machinery, farm tools, etc., all of which were destroyed. The cause of the fire is a mystery, but many suppose it to be from spontaneous combustion, caused by the hay heating while in process of curing.

—The concert given by the Nashville Colored Church choir company at Lippin's music hall last evening, was well attended, considering the warm night. The programme included some fine music liberally interspersed with plantation songs, and many of the number were loudly cheered. Mrs. Bentley, as musical director, fully sustained her reputation. She favored the audience with a number of recitations, in which she displayed rare talent as an elocutionist. Mr. Bentley possesses a rich and well cultivated tenor voice, and his solo singing last evening is worthy of particular mention. The other members of the company did well. Their closing concert will be given in Rockford Monday evening, Sept. 8th. The company will rest until about the first of November and then reorganize and start out on a winter tour.

Canine Capers.

The show of performing dogs, at the Myers opera house on Monday evening, will be worth attending. Good houses have greeted Prof. Morris and his canine in all parts of the country, and the performance gives the best of satisfaction. The State Journal speaks of the show in this complimentary manner: "The dog show at the opera house last evening attracted an immense audience, the parquet and gallery being alike crowded. The performance was highly entertaining and gave the most general satisfaction, the children especially—and they were legion—being beside themselves with delight. The dogs accomplished a number of remarkable feats, the most difficult being the tight rope walking of one of the animals. This dog, after three unsuccessful attempts, passed from one side of the stage across to the other on an ordinary rope stretched eight feet above the floor. The leaping of the dogs formed an interesting feature, that of a large bound being simply marvelous, both for height and distance. The cleverness and grace and greatest merit by the many rousing acts, and in fact, the whole exhibition abounded in entertaining events. The show will be repeated this evening."

Extravagant claims for inferior medicines are always sure to defeat the ends for which they are intended. It is only when the efficacy of a remedy has been tried and proven that it is an inviolable specific. Mr. P. Ferguson, of No. 263 Hudson street, Buffalo, N. Y., adds his testimony to that of hundreds of others when he writes, in ordering a bottle of Athiophoros, the great remedy for rheumatism and neuralgia: "I find your medicine all you claim for it. I am now able to get around very comfortably."

For bilious fevers and malarial disorders, use Ayer's Ague Cure. Taken according to directions, its success is guaranteed.

SUICIDE AT CLINTON.

Will Brooks, of this City, Ends his Life by Taking Morphine.

Particulars of the Taking of his Own Life.

Reports reached this city shortly after nine o'clock this morning that Mr. Will Brooks, of this city, committed suicide at the Taylor house in Clinton, last evening. At first no particulars could be learned. The Gazette immediately telegraphed to Clinton for the particulars, and received the following from Mr. Badlong:

"Brooks was seen in the streets of Clinton all day yesterday, and in the evening he went to bed at the Taylor house without supper. He told the clerk not to call him. He said for his lodgings, and it is supposed that he intended shooting himself, but was so far gone from taking morphine that he could not get his revolver to work. His revolver was found cocked, and it could not be discharged, and the cylinder had to be removed before the hammer could be let down. They got into his room through the transom; he was then alive but unconscious, which was about 8:30 this morning. A doctor was sent for immediately, but he could not restore him, after working hard for an hour or more. He leaves letters to his wife. An inquest is being held now (noon) at the Taylor house where the deed was committed. A small bottle containing (it is supposed) morphine was found on the stand in his room. He did not go to bed, but took off everything but his shirt and drawers, and laid on the floor; one pillow was on the floor where he was found."

Mr. Frank O. Brooks, of Eau Claire, brother of the unfortunate man, who was attempting to some business in this city when the bad news was received, immediately arranged to have the remains brought home for interment, and accompanied such arrangements with Messrs. Britton & Kimball, undertaker of this city, to reach here on the 8:45 train from Chicago this evening.

The deceased leaves a wife and one child. He was well known to our people, and for some months he had been traveling in the west, part of the time being in Chicago. At the time of his death he was expected home by his family.

LATER.

Mr. Frank O. Brooks, who hastened to Clinton this afternoon, telegraphs Marshall Hogan at 2:35 this afternoon as follows:

"The jury do not find that Will committed suicide."

His friends here claim that he has been sick for some time, but cannot fully account for his sudden death. Perhaps his letters to his wife will solve the mystery.

The Senatorial Convention.

The republican seventeenth senatorial convention will convene in the court house, on Monday next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of electing two delegates to represent the district in the congressional convention in Beloit, September 10th. The city will be represented as follows:

SECOND WARD.

W. T. Vaukrick, J. A. Leland, W. H. Judd, E. S. Taylor.

THIRD WARD.

FIFTH WARD.

The third assembly district will meet at the same place at two o'clock p. m. on the same day.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 69 degrees above zero. Clear with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 50 degrees above zero. Partly Cloudy with south wind. For the corresponding time last year the thermometer registered 48 and 75 degrees above zero.

A Pleasant Surprise.

A "one lot of ladies, numbering eleven persons, drawn by four spirited horses, surprised the family of George Mabelson last Friday morning. The visitors were all from Janesville, and the occasion of the call, aside from the "surprise" feature, was the presentation to Mrs. Mabelson by Mrs. C. H. Geseleschop of the photographs of herself and husband. The picture was mounted in a beautiful blue velvet case and was accompanied by an elegant carved black walnut stand draped with a fine piece of crocheted work wrought by the deft fingers of the fair donor. The visiting party consisted of mesdames, C. H. Geseleschop, M. Boul, J. Ehringer, M. Felber, L. Knapp, P. Lennartz, H. Rickers, H. Sandow, I. Sharba, C. N. Whipple and M. Luman. After partaking of a bountiful collation at Mr. Mabelson's and looking about the city while the ladies departed for their homes, expressing themselves as being well pleased with their visit to Edgerton. —Edgerton Reporter.

SECOND BALLOT.

Mr. A. A. Jackson was declared elected a delegate to Beloit.

The ballot for the second delegate resulted as follows:

Colonel Burdick was duly elected.

On motion the roll of delegates was called for the delegates to express their choice for congressman, and resulted in every delegate present voting for Hon. L. B. Caswell.

On motion of Mr. Eldredge, the basis of representation in future conventions was fixed the same as that recently adopted by the republican county convention, and the old, old truth came to us with renewed freshness. God's love and care is over all in summer heats and under harvest moons.

Just beyond the Mount, a shadow of passing clouds fell upon the valley, and a shadow fell upon our spirits, as we thought of the death in life endured by the poor souls confined within the rambling walls of the asylum.

We were welcomed with genial cordiality by the superintendent M. M. Conant and his estimable wife, and callers are always received with pleasant courtesy. They are greatly assisted in their daily work by the gentlemanly attendant, Mr. Dural.

"How scrupulously neat, and how can you keep it so?" was our constant query, as we were shown through dormitories, kitchens, dining-rooms, laundry and storerooms, and woman-like our scrutiny was close and critical.

Their family number about 125, 73 insane, 22 paupers, and 20 hired help, and there will be more received next week from Madison. Like Mr. Briarly's round dozen, "They all be gotten months and must be fed," and we can hardly estimate the amount of care and responsibility vested in those who have such a varied charge. In addition to this is the supervision of the farm of 210 acres with varied crops.

Among the aged poor is Grandma—, whom they introduced to us with the pleasant comment, "She is always happy." Blessed state of mind for one whose round of luxuries is her cup of tea, wholesome food, cosy room and sunny window.

Upon a bench in the open yard sat a fat old man with expressive face, but singing now and then with a voice of wonderful sweetness.

One man addressed us with great earnestness, "You are a Boston lady, I know you by your dress—and you have seen the Monument. I built it. There is a windlass running from top to bottom, an endless chain, but it is all wrong, there is a crack in the foundation—it is giving away and I told them so."

But not to particularize, there are here the blind, the blind, the young and the middle-aged and those who stand on the very brink of the river. Some come from pleasant homes and have left many a heart-ache behind them, and others are friendless and homeless, but all "have left behind them the wreck of a life."

There is no nothing about the form for live they must until Death calls him.

The institution is conducted in an excellent and able manner is without question, and thus fact should give universal satisfaction to the public whether personally interested or otherwise.

Personal.

—Edgerton Reporter:—Miss Jennie Rowe, of Janesville, is visiting with D. F. Coon's family and other friends.

Mrs. Dearborn, of Janesville, has been the guest of Mrs. Wm. Clatworthy this week.

—Mrs. J. F. Hart, who has been spending the summer with her sister, formerly Miss Nettie Campbell, at Elizabeth New Jersey, returned home last evening. Mrs. Hart spent the most of the summer at Coney Island and other pleasure resorts on the eastern coast.

—Mr. A. McDougal, of the first ward, started this morning on a pleasure trip to California, intending to be absent some three or four weeks. Mrs. McDougal accompanied him as far as Galena, where she will remain until Mr. McDougal's return, visiting her son, Ed. McDougal, who is engaged in railroading at that place.

—Mrs. O. H. Brand returned home last evening, after an absence of over three months in New York state, the Thousand Islands and other resorts. She had a most pleasant trip, and was accompanied on her homeward journey by Miss Jennie Young, of Ogdensburg, New York, who will spend a few days in this city, and then proceed to St. Paul to visit her sister.

—The Milton Telephone, of the 4th ward, in reporting the Teacher's Institute, which was held in the College chapel, among other things says, "On Tuesday evening the Hon. J. Sutherland, of Janesville, delivered a very interesting lecture before the teachers, on the Harmony of the Mosaic account of the creation, with the Science of Astronomy and Geology." We learn that the lecture was well attended by the citizens of Milton, especially by teachers.

The County Asylum for the Insane.

To the Editor.

The fact that insanity seems to be increasing in the United States, is a matter of serious concern among scientists. It is stated that while the population of America has increased from 1790 to 1880, the insane have increased from 100,000 to 400,000, and thirty-five per cent.

The causes are various but among the most important doubtless, are the rapid influx of weak-minded foreign population, and the mental strain required to keep up the demands for rushing business activity in our hurried age.

The case of Wilbur Story is just now exciting public interest, and the sympathies of all are with the poor imbecile, who acts in his irrational child, surrounded by luxuries he can never enjoy. But how few of us pause to consider the poor unfortunate, who through force of circumstances must go through the protection of homes and friends and enter our public asylums.

Such were our sober reflections as we journeyed the other day out to our county asylum for the insane. Above the tasseled corn shown the glowing sun ripening to completion summer's harvests, and the old, old truth came to us with renewed freshness. God's love and care is over all in summer heats and under harvest moons.
